RESPONDENT

Date of Decision : 28-02-2011

Acts Referred:

Citation : (2011) 02 MAD CK 0168

Hon'ble Judges : M. Jaichandren, J

Bench : Single Bench

Advocate : P. Jagadeesan, for the Appellant; T.R. Senthil Kumar, R1 and R2 and
P. Mahadevan, CGSC for R3, for the Respondent

Judgement

M. Jaichandren, J.—Heard the learned Counsels appearing for the Petitioner, as well as the Respondents.

2. The learned Counsels appearing on behalf of the Respondents had submitted that investigations are being carried on, in respect of the import of the Second Hand Digital Multifunction Print and Copying Machines.

Thereafter, adjudication proceedings would be held to find out if any irregularities had been committed in the import of such goods. While so, this Court may be pleased to release the goods, if it deems it fit to do so, on the Petitioner depositing 40% of the enhanced value, apart from paying the applicable rate of duty on the enhanced value. They had also submitted that the adjudication proceedings could be completed by the

Respondents, within a period of 15 days from the time of its commencement.

3. In view of the several orders passed by this Court, directing the Respondents to release the goods in question, on certain conditions, and as the submissions made by the learned Counsels appearing on behalf of the Respondents have not shown any new grounds, for the modification of the earlier orders passed, in similar matters, this Court finds it fit to direct the Respondents to release the goods in question, with similar conditions.

4. It is also seen that the conditions imposed by this Court, in its earlier orders, had been confirmed by a Division Bench, in its order, dated 21.10.2009, made in W.A. No. 1508 of 2009 (The Commissioner of Customs (Imports), Seaport, Chennai and Anr. v. Polycraft Exports (P)

Ltd., and Another). Thereafter, orders have been passed in several writ petitions, including the order, dated 2.12.2010, in W.P. Nos. 26964 and 27146 of 2010, directing the release of the detained goods, without any modification of the conditions impugned in the earlier orders.

5. In such circumstances, this writ petition is disposed of, directing the Petitioner to deposit 25% of the enhanced value, apart from paying the applicable rate of duty on the enhanced value. On complying with the above said conditions, the Respondents are directed to release the goods, in 4 question, forthwith, with liberty to the Respondents to proceed further, with the adjudication proceedings, in accordance with law. The Petitioner shall cooperate, fully, in the adjudication proceedings to be conducted by the Respondents. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
