1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of Rule for and on behalf of respondent – State.

2. The present application is filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for regular bail in connection with C.R.No.11207024220343 of 2022 registered with Godhra Taluka Police Station, District Panchmahal for the offence punishable under Sections 65(a), 65(e), 81, 82, 83 and 98(2) of the Gujarat Prohibition Act.

3. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions. It is submitted that applicant has been arrested on 08.12.2023 and since then he is in judicial custody. It is further submitted that investigation is already concluded and present application is filed after submission of charge-sheet. That all the offences are exclusively triable by the Court of Magistrate. Thus, considering the above stated factual aspects of the matter, applicant may be enlarged on bail.

4. Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.

5. Learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.

6. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers of the investigation and considered the allegations levelled against the applicant and the role played by the applicant. It is found out from the record that applicant is in jail since 08.12.2023. That investigation is already concluded and charge-sheet is filed. All the offences are exclusively triable by the Court of Magistrate. Thus, considering the above stated factual aspects, I am inclined to consider this application.

7. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. Central Bureau of Investigation, reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in case of Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation & Anr. reported in (2022)10 SCC 51.

8. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.

9. Hence, the present application is allowed and the applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with C.R.No.11207024220343 of 2022 registered with Godhra Taluka Police Station, District Panchmahal on executing a personal bond of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;
