Judgement

1. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. By way of present OA, the applicant has prayed for the following reliefs:

(a) Direct the Respondents to accept the option of the applicant with further direction to fix the pay of the Applicant in the 6th CPC from the date of his promotion to the rank of Nb Sub i.e., 29.11.2007 and accordingly re-fix the pay in the Rank of Nb Sub and consequently in the Ranks of Sub, Sub

Maj and Hony Lt as granted to all other persons whose option was accepted by following the ratio of the judgment dated 10.12.2014 passed in OA

No. 130 of 2014 in Chittar Singh 8; Ors.

(b) Direct the Respondents to pay the Applicant arrears of the difference of pay in the Rank of Nb Sub and Ranks of Sub, Sub Maj and Hony Lt after adjusting the payments already made by revising other allowances as per the revised rate including increment/DA etc. earned till date along with interest @ 12% from the date it was payable till the date payment is made.

(c) Pass any other order/orders as deemed appropriate by this Hon'ble Tribunal in the facts and circumstances of the present case.

3. Learned counsel for the respondents has opposed the maintainability of the OA on the ground of territorial jurisdiction. Moreover, there is no impugned order. It is further submitted that before filing the present OA, neither any representation nor any appeal was preferred by the applicant and, therefore, before exhausting statutory remedies, the OA is premature.

4. Since large number of OAs have been filed before the Tribunal on this issue, therefore, for the time being, we are leaving the issue of jurisdiction open. One thing is clear that before filing the OA, either no representation was made by the applicant or if made, same was not disposed of.

Therefore, it will be desirable that the OA be treated as redressal of grievances by the Competent Authority, which will dispose of the rederssal of grievances in the light of the judgment dated 10.12.2014 passed in O.A. No. 113 of 2014 titled Sub Chittar Singh and others Vs. Union of India & Ors.

and judgment dated 09.12.2016 in O.A. No. 1610 of 2016 titled Sub Sadeesh Kumar Vs. Union of India & Ors. passed by the Principal Bench of AFT.

5. In case, the applicant is entitled for the relief(s) in the light of the aforesaid judgments, same be granted to him, otherwise a speaking order be passed within a period of six months from the date of receipt of copy of the order, which be communicated to the applicant.

6. In case the applicant still feels aggrieved by the order so passed, he will be at liberty to take legal recourse at appropriate Forum.

7. The respondents are also at liberty to take appropriate objection including jurisdiction in case subsequent proceedings are initiated by the applicant.

8. In view of the foregoing, OA stands disposed of.

9. Copy of this order be given 'Dasti' to the learned counsel for the parties.
