2. Learned Advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.
3. Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.
4. Learned Advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.
5. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers. Following aspects are considered:-

I. The FIR is registered on 18.08.2020 for the offence which is alleged to have taken place between 11.08.2020 to 17.08.2020.

II. The applicant is in jail since 20.08.2020.

III. The investigation is concluded and charge-sheet is filed.

IV. Submission of learned advocate for the applicant that the applicant is arrested merely on suspicion as there is no evidence to connect the applicant. The reason for arresting the applicant is that the applicant is having 10 antecedents. However, so far as the present application is concerned, there is no evidence to connect him.

V. The applicant is aged 20 years.

VI. Co-accused, who is similarly situated, has been enlarged on regular bail and hence, by applying the principle of parity.

VII. Learned APP under instructions of IO is unable to bring on record any special circumstances against the applicant.

6. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.

7. Hence, the present application is allowed.
