3. Heard learned Advocate Mr. Ashish M. Dagli for the Applicant and learned APP Mr. J. K. Shah for the Respondent – State.
4. Learned Advocate for the Applicant submitted that the Applicant has good reputation in the society and no useful purpose would be served by keeping the applicant in jail for indefinite period. It is further contended that the applicant is ready and willing to abide by all the conditions that may be imposed by this Court if released on bail.
5. Per contra, learned APP Mr. J. K. Shah has vehemently opposed the present application for grant of regular bail contending that the deceased had committed suicide, and prior to the incident, on the very same day the present applicant had visited him and had demanded the amount which had been lent by the present applicant to the deceased and the deceased was also threatened by the present applicant of the consequences if the amount was not repaid, that is why the deceased had committed suicide. Considering the active participation on the part of the present applicant, it is submitted to dismiss the present application.

6. Heard learned advocates for the respective parties and perused the record. From the record it appears that the deceased had borrowed some money from the present applicant. Though the deceased had repaid some amount, the present applicant continued to demand and recover the amount from the deceased and, that is why the deceased had committed the suicide. Having regard to the nature of offence and the allegations levelled against the applicant, the application deserves consideration.

7. This court has considered the following aspects:

(a) As per catena of decisions of Hon'ble Supreme Court, there are mainly 3 factors which are required to be considered by this court i.e. prima facie case, availability of Applicant accused at the time of trial and tampering and hampering with the witnesses by the accused.

(b) That the learned Advocate for the Applicant has submitted that the Applicant Accused is not likely to flee away.

(c) That the Applicant is in custody since 08.03.2024.

(d) The law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. C.B.I. Reported in (2012) 1 SCC 40.

8. Having heard the learned Advocates for the parties and perusing the record produced in this case as well as taking into consideration the facts of the case, nature of allegations, gravity of accusation, availability of the Applicant Accused at the time of Trial etc. and the role attributed to the present Applicant accused, the present Application deserves to be allowed and accordingly stands allowed. This Court has also gone through the FIR and police papers and also the earlier order passed by the learned Sessions Court where the learned Sessions Judge has disallowed the bail Application at initial stage. The Applicant Accused is ordered to be released on bail in connection with the aforesaid FIR on executing a personal bond of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court, subject to the following conditions that he shall:
