2) Learned Advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions. Learned advocate for the applicant has submitted that the applicant has been arraigned as an accused only on the basis of presumption with the articles, which were in the process of being stolen, were to be delivered to the applicant. He has submitted that as per the affidavit of the Investigating Officer there is no antecedent and therefore, Sections 413 and 114 of IPC cannot be attracted.

5) I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers. Following aspects are considered:-

6) This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. Central Bureau of Investigation, reported in [2012]1 SCC 40.

7) In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.
