1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of rule for respondent – State of Gujarat.

2. The present application is filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11189005231583/2023 registered with the Morbi Taluka Police Station, Morbi for the offence punishable under Sections 394, 120(B), 34 and 114 of the Indian Penal Code and under Section 135 of the Gujarat Police Act.

3. Learned advocate for the applicant submitted that the so-called incident has taken place on 17.08.2023, for which, the FIR has been lodged on the very same day i.e. on 17.08.2023 and the applicant has been arrested in connection with the same on 17.08.2023 and since then, he is in judicial custody. Learned advocate submitted that now the investigation is completed and after submission of the chargesheet, the present application is preferred. Learned advocate submitted that as per the case of the prosecution, there is a loot of Rs.45,000/- at the time of commission of offence, however, considering the nature of the offence and the role played by the applicant at the time of commission of crime, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

4. Learned APP for the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence. It is submitted that the role of the present applicant is clearly spelt out from the papers of the chargesheet as also in the CCTV footage collected by the IO and, hence, the present application may not be entertained.

5. Learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.

6. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers of the investigation and considered the allegations levelled against the applicant and the role played by the applicant. It is found out from the record that the present application is preferred after submission of the chargesheet and now the investigation is completed and the applicant is in jail since 17.08.2023. I have also considered the role played by the applicant at the time of commission of crime. Therefore considering the above factual aspects, the present application deserves to be allowed.

7. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. Central Bureau of Investigation, reported in [2012] 1 SCC 40 as well as in case of Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation & Anr. reported in (2022) 10 SCC 51.

8. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.

9. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11189005231583/2023 registered with the Morbi Taluka Police Station, Morbi on executing a personal bond of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;

It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.
