Judgement

R.R. Tripathi, J.—By way of this appeal the appellant-Insurance Company has challenged the order dated 5.2.2014 passed by the learned 2nd Additional District Judge, Ahmedabad (Rural), Ahmedabad below Exh. 3 in Motor Accident Claim Petition No. 1181 of 2010.

2. It is submitted by learned advocate for the appellant that insurance company has raised contention in First Appeal with regard to breach of condition of policy as well as statutory rights available to the insurance company in Claim Petition filed u/s 140 of the Motor Vehicles Act. In view of decision of this Court in the case of United India Insurance Co. Ltd. Vs. Sidikbhai Ukabhai Solanki and Another, , the appellant Insurance company has preferred this appeal with a view to see that present no fault liability award is not treated as constructive res judicata while deciding claim petition u/s 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act.

3. Considering the submission of learned advocate for the appellant herein, in the opinion of this Court, if necessary direction is given to the Hon''ble Tribunal not to treat the order passed by the Hon''ble Tribunal below application under Sec. 140 as constructive res judicata nor will it come in way in any manner while deciding main claim petition filed under Sec. 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act, then it will meet the ends of justice.

4. In view of above, the order dated 5.2.2014 passed by the learned 2nd Additional District Judge, Ahmedabad (Rural), Ahmedabad below Exh. 3 in Motor Accident Claim Petition No. 1181 of 2010 will not be treated as constructive res judicata and will not come in way in any manner while deciding claim petition filed u/s 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act and Hon''ble Tribunal will decide the main claim petition on merits without being influenced by the order passed by the Hon''ble Tribunal below application u/s 140 of the Motor Vehicles Act. Insurance Company is at liberty to raise all the contentions which are available under the law before the Hon''ble Tribunal.

5. In pursuance of the order passed by the Hon''ble Tribunal below application u/s 140 of the Motor Vehicles Act, after balance amount is deposited by the Insurance Company, the Hon''ble Tribunal will pass necessary orders under the provisions of law to disburse and invest in cumulative deposit. The claimants will file an "Undertaking" on affidavit that claimants will not withdraw or permit to dismiss for default or non prosecution of main petition and will obtain judgment on merits.

6. In view of above, the first appeal is disposed of. Notice is discharged. No order as to costs.
