2. Learned Advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

3. Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.

4. Learned Advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.

5. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers. Following aspects are considered:-

III. The investigation is concluded and charge-sheet is filed.

IV. Submission of learned advocate for the applicant that the even from the reading of the FIR, it is apparent that the applicant himself has given money to the main accused and he has been duped for such amount.

V. Considering the evidence on record which would indicate that none of the witnesses have attributed any role to the applicant while transaction of money has taken place.

VI. The applicant is not having any antecedents as per learned advocate for the applicant.

VII. Learned APP under instructions of IO is unable to bring on record any special circumstances against the applicant.

6. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.
